

HOLY TRINITY ACADEMY
 We hope that you found reading last Sunday's Section 48 inspection report pleasing. There were some concerns raised by parishioners that a joint Catholic/Church of England school would damage the denominational aspect of the school.

The Religious Ofsted Report circulated last week reassures us that this is not the case, with its verdict of "Good with Outstanding features". Copies of the report are available at the back of church.

The main Ofsted Report (Section 5) showed Holy Trinity to be a "Good School". The Report is too long to print off copies. You can read the Report at www.holytrinity.academy/ by clicking "Our School" and then "Ofsted Report 2018"

A NEW SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Doing things together is so important in bringing people together, as they get to know each other. To this end, a new Social Committee has been established with members from both our parishes. The first meeting was held last week.

Several activities are already in the diary for the coming weeks, arranged by parish groups as fundraisers.

Members of the Committee are planning events just to bring our people together. Starting with a pre-Christmas Meal in December, it is planned to hold regular (monthly?) events and have pencilled-in events up to Easter and beyond.

Notes taken at the meeting are available from the porch. The members of the Social Committee would welcome your ideas and suggestions for possible future events.
