THE 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING

Isaiah 55: 6-9

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Seek the Lord while he is still to be found, call to him while he is still near. Let the wicked man abandon his way, the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn back to the Lord who will take pity on him, to our God who is rich in forgiving; for my thoughts are not your thoughts, my ways not your ways – it is the Lord who speaks. Yes, the heavens are as high above earth as my ways are above your ways, my thoughts above your thoughts.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 144

Response: The Lord is close to all who call him.

1. I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever.
The Lord is great, highly to be praised,
his greatness cannot be measured. R/
2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures. R/
3. The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds.
He is close to all who call him,
who call on him from their hearts. R/

SECOND READING

Philippians 1: 20-24, 27

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Christ will be glorified in my body, whether by my life or by my death. Life to me, of course, is Christ, but then death would bring me something more; but then again, if living in this body means doing work which is having good results – I do not know what I should choose. I am caught in this dilemma: I want to be gone and be with Christ, which would be very much better, but for me to stay alive in this body is a more urgent need for your sake.

Avoid anything in your everyday lives that would be unworthy of the gospel of Christ.

The word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God

ALLELUIA VERSE

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heavens!

Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 20: 1-16

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a land-owner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them, 'You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage.' So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing round, and he said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day?' 'Because no one has hired us,' they answered. He said to them, 'You go into my vineyard too.' In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first.' So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the land-owner. 'The men who came last' they said, 'have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day's work in all the heat.' He answered one of them and said, 'My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?' Thus the last will be first, and the first, last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER REMEMBRANCES

We remember in prayer all who have died, especially Dorothy Lee (funeral Mass on 25th September); all who are mourning the death of a loved one; and all those whose anniversaries occur about this time.

Next week we will have envelopes available for this collection or you can give online at <https://cafod.org.uk/fundraise/family-fast-day>

CHURCHES TOGETHER COAT DRIVE

Churches Together is aiming to collect 200+ new or like-new men's coats. Hats, gloves, jumpers and new warm socks to help keep those who are awaiting asylum warm this winter. They are unable to take women or children's clothing. See the noticeboard for drop off locations.

HEALTH & SAFETY AUDIT

We need stewards at our Masses, especially in the event of needing an evacuation. We had a great team during Covid lockdown, many of whom are still helping out. We would like to have a few more so we can have a pool of helpers on a rota and the safe running of Masses doesn't have to fall on the same few people.

St Patrick's also needs a Health and Safety Representative, who could work with Phillip Williams the rep at Our Lady's, so that the approach covers both churches.

There is a training day on 9th November at Shrewsbury Cathedral for anyone interested. If anyone else would like to help as part of a health and safety committee, you will be more than welcome.

Speak to Fr Ravi or Moira if you can help.
